SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 10, 1878.

GENERAL SCOTT'S DAUGHTER.-According to a Washington correspondent of a New York paper the true story of the love affair of Miss Scott, daughter of the late Gen. Winfield Scoot, as related by a friend of the family, is much less romantic than the tale of the gossips lately published. According to this friend, nearly forty years ago Mrs. Gen. Scott was living in Paris with her family, the younger daughters being rupils in the Convent of the Sacred Heart. She moved in the highest circles of Parisian society, and her eldest daughter was known because of her exceeding beauty and culture as "La belle Americaine." A Frenchman of excellent family and considerable wealth fell in love with Miss Scott. His affection was reciprocated, and with the consent of Mrs. Scott an engagement of marriage was made. In visiting the Convent of the Sacred Heart, where her younger sisters were at school, Miss Scott became deeply impressed with the holy life of the Sisters. In a comparatively short time she was converted, and determined to devote her life to the Church. She sought and obtained a release from her engagement. What became of her lover is not known, beyond the fact that he never left Europe. He was reported to have joined a religious order in Rome. Miss Scott returned to the United States with her mother shortly afterwards, and was admitted to the Convent of the Visitation at Georgetown. She was in delicate health, when, on the 2d of Ostober, 1844, she received the habit of the povice, and on the 26th of Hugust, 1845, she died of consumption.

ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c. ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S ICE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Brengle's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so.
